

9th Annual Gluhwein Marathon

Date: Sun. 07 Dec. 2008

Suggested by: Leila Baldwin

Description: We will walk through the University Botanic Garden on our way to the Arabella Adventmarket in front of the Belvedere. After a few Gluhweins we carefully cross the Guertel and walk through the Schweizer Park direct to the Arsenal (Military Museum). Here at the Medieval Christmas Fair we can see Christmas gifts from former times — perhaps even some more Gluhwein. Stumble into the museum which has free admission on this day. Now that your appetite has been whetted, we will stroll over to a nice restaurant for some more — you thought I was going to say Gluhwein — food!
