HIKE RAX – Grosses Wolfstal

Date: Saturday 25 July, 2009 (postponed from 20 June, 2009)

Suggested by: Thomas Gabriel

Description: A small adventure: Only a short time through woods, after passing a ladder there you'll find the pure wilderness, great panoramic views and solitude. You have to set each step carefully on this mostly steep valley.

Map(s): BEV Schneeberg und Rax 1:25 000 Also see the following page.

Length of activity, elevation and difficulty:

4 hrs uphill ('Grosses Wolfstal' - 1050m height difference) to Bergasthof Scharfegger (cable car – top station). Technically a bit more difficult, because of no path, mostly steep, no marking, wet and loose boulders, 2 ladders..

2 hrs downhill – 'Brandscheide', technically easier than uphill, marked way, last part with some ladders in. (Alternate you can climb up or down by cable car - Raxbahn)

Meeting time and place: 09:30 – 150 meters after Kaiserbrunn, a small parking place right along the street, 9:30am.

Ending time and place: 16:00–17:00. Ending point: The same as beginning point; according to weather, our liking and the route back. If we like, we'll have a social drink at Kaiserbrunn

Driving instructions:

Wien - Südbahn (A2) - Schnellstraße (S6) to Semmering – Exit Gloggnitz – B27: Gloggnitz – Reichenau – Hirschwang – (Raxbahn) – Kaiserbrunn (Wasserleitungsmuseum). Kaiserbrunn is approx. 100km from Vienna (1 1/4 hrs).
