Basic Education on Rock and Ice — Taught in English

Dachstein's mountainous region offers perfect terrain to train your skills on both rock and ice. You will learn the basics of mountaineering: hiking in high-mountain regions, walking on glaciers, climbing via ferrata, navigation, and much more. We meet on Saturday morning at the top station of the Dachstein Südwand cable car.

Course Nr. n120662

- Date: Sat. & Sun. 23-24 JUNE, 2012
- Guide: Martin Scherr, 0664/5160976, martinscherr@dachsteinguide.at
- Accommodation: Adamek-Hütte, Dachstein (2.196 m) www.adamek.at
- To get there: From Vienna via S6, A10, Liezen, Schladming, Ramsau, Dachstein Südwand cable car (approximately 3,5 hours.)
- Meeting place: 9:00 am bottom station of the Südwandbahn cable car
- Requirements: free from dizziness, fit for tour length up to 7 hours
- Program: We start from the cable car bottom-station via Hoher Dachstein or Steiner Scharte to Adamek Hütte. On the way we practise walking on glaciers and climbing via ferrata. Crevasses and many climbing routes enable training of all skills you need for touring in mountain regions (depending on the interests and previous knowledge of the group members). According to the snow conditions we may eventually use snowshoes!
- Costs: € 160 for leadership, accommodation with dinner and breakfast at Adamek-Hütte. Additionally: cable car app. € 25.
- Gear: see attached list (Rock & Ice Training course), Alpenverein-map Nr. 14 (Dachstein)
- Preliminary meeting: Monday 18 June, at 6.00 p.m. at the Alpenvereinshaus, Rotenturmstr. 14, Vienna, 1010 for more detailed information about the program and the required gear.
Distribution of the necessary rental equipment!!!
